Summary

Student Computer Scientist and Developer

With more than three years experience in Windows and Windows Server systems, I have accumulated a lot of knowledge in helpdesk and customer service.

I have built more than 150 PCs by myself during my technician years, I have acquired enough capacity to cope and solve most of the troublesome problems.

Three years studying C# and a lot of knowledge in IT and networking.

Through my personal and group projects, I have developed an appreciable amount of skills in communication and group work.
